Case Number: 10-003

Complainant Name: Everette Wilson

CASE SUMMARY

Date of Incident: 5/18/10
Date of Complaint filed with IA: 6/15/10
Date of Complaint filed with CRB: 6/14/10

Officers: Officer Thaddeus Calvert

Allegation: Discourtesy
Harassment
Racial Profiling

The Complainant, Everette Wilson, filed a complaint with CRB on or about June 14, 2010 via the US Mail and executed a standard CRB complaint form attaching the same complaint on or about June 17, 2010. Mr. Wilson alleges that on May 18, 2010, he was walking his dog and was unjustifiably stopped, questioned and temporarily detained via handcuffs by Officer Calvert. Mr. Wilson attached a few, incomplete courthouse records to substantiate his claim that this officer knew, or should have known Mr. Wilson from a previous traffic stop.

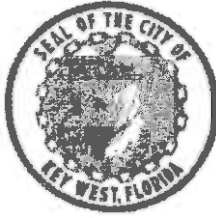

Mr. Wilson also alleges the existence of "field interview reports" and CAD documents that would further be relevant to his claim. The courthouse traffic ticket files were pulled and copied so that the entire courthouse record is represented for the CRB. No other attempts were made to secure the "field interview reports" or CAD documents Mr. Wilson alleges exist because Mr. Wilson apparently withdrew his complaint on August 12, 2010, by meeting with KWPD IA representatives and signing a notice of withdrawal of his complaint.

This file consists of the following written/visual materials:

1. Complaint and supporting documents and transfer to IA cover memo;
2. Inspector Randy Smith's E-mail and attached written & signed notice of withdrawal of complaint by Mr. Wilson;
3. Copy of the courthouse files relative to the alleged tickets which Mr. Wilson had referenced that document his prior encounter with the subject officer in the past; and
4. Notice Letters to involved parties;

THE FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS OF THIS/THESE COMPLAINT(S) HAS/HAVE NOT BEEN INVESTIGATED BY EITHER THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS DIVISION OF THE KEY WEST POLICE DEPARTMENTMENT, NOR THE CITIZENS REVIEW BOARD (CRB). THIS/THESE COMPLAINT(S) IS/ARE BEFORE THE BOARD FOR ADMINISTRATIVE PROCESSING ONLY UNTIL SUCH TIME AS EITHER INTERNAL AFFAIRS OR THE CRB INVESTIGATES THE ALLEGATIONS OF THE COMPLAINT. ANY READER OF THIS/THESE COMPLAINT(S) SHOULD NOT PRESUME THAT THE OFFICER COMPLAINED AGAINST HAS ENGAGED IN ANY WRONGDOING.

RE: THADDEUS CALVERT (Key West Police Department):

TOPIC: ABUSE OF AUTHORITY / HARRASSMENT/ RACIAL PROFILING:

To whom it may Concern:

I'm writing with letter in regard of the continuous harassment issues concerning the aforementioned Officer. On May 18, 2010, I Everette Wilson was walking my dog through the 800 block of Terry Lane. Officer T. Calvert, Key West P.D. was driving though he passed me and then stopped his vehicle looked at me and backed up his vehicle. He then asked me my name. I asked him what the purpose of his questioning. I also mentioned that I was under no obligation to talk to him. He then antagonistically approached me and handcuffed me. After that he said that I bear a resemblance to someone he knew to have a felony warrant. Please note that I have some knowledge of the law and I didn't attempt to walk/turned away as Officer Calvert fictitiously stated in his "field interview report". I did previously have encounters with the law, but at this point in my life I've learn to respect authority. I take care of my two grandchildren, assist in maintaining my household, and volunteer at the Salvation Army. This officer is known for targeting the people of color in community in which I reside. A respective view of his previously written CAD / Field Interview Reports will demonstrate my allegation of "targeting". Officer Calvert at no point had the affability to advise me the way I resembled the "so call person" who supposedly had this warrant. I feel confirmation needs to be completed in re of this so call warrant for this mysterious perpetrator. Lastly, Due to the fact that Mr. Calvert has had numerous encounters with not only me, but others. This demonstrates harassment, racial profiling, and/ or abuse of authority. I received two tickets from officers Calvert that ultimately was dismissed (May 04, 2010). Please refer to Cit No 2238F112/ 2237F112 Case Numbers: 10TR/1375K / 10TR1374K (Ret Date May 04, 2010). See enclosed data as proof. This also show this officer had awareness of my identity and fabricated his reports. Mr. Calvert is known for being antagonistic in his own home and towards his family members (see attached news clipping). This indicates that Mr. Caver has no problem inflicting abusive characteristic traits on those he is obligated to serve and protect. I feel prompt attention needs to be given to this matter. This may perhaps prevent reprisal from Mr. Calvert and/or from his acquaintances. I'll take this opportunity to thank you in advance for your time patience, cooperation, in this sensitive matter. If you have any inquiries regarding this matter please feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Respectfully Submitted,

Everette F. Wilson

Judge takes cop's gun

BY JOHN L. GUERRA Citizen Staff

jguerra@keysnews.com (<mailto:jguerra@keysnews.com>)

A Key West police officer is on vacation as he attempts to get his firearms — including his service weapons — back from a judge.

Thad Calvert was ordered to surrender his service weapons — he has a half-dozen — and personal guns after allegations that he struck his children repeatedly.

He hopes to persuade Monroe County Judge Ruth Becker to let him have his work pistols so he can return to duty.

"Officer Calvert ... is attempting to have the judge amend the injunction to allow him to possess his firearm at work," Key West Police Chief Donie Lee said Friday. "All of his firearms, duty and personal, have been turned into the KWPD or Monroe County Sheriff's Office. As of now, he cannot possess a firearm and would have to work at the station without his firearm — which he is authorized to do."

Lee said Calvert, whose paid vacation went into effect Monday, is not the focus of an Internal Affairs investigation.

"I am waiting for all of the facts to be gathered," Lee said.

Calvert and his wife are having "ongoing domestic difficulties," according to police spokeswoman Alyson Crean.

The state Department of Children and Families became involved after Calvert allegedly struck his son and daughter during a visit to his house, a Sheriff's Office investigation shows.

"His ex-wife filed a complaint with claims about the children, so the Department of Children and Families is investigating," Crean said.

The Police Department isn't part of the court process in this case, she added.

"We're not involved in this, beyond where we're dealing with Calvert's weapons."

Calvert was hired on Feb. 14, 2008.

The Color of Law (node/20810#comment-39425)

Submitted on Mon, 02/15/2010 - 10:12pm

The "Color of Law" in this circumstance is appalling! As a taxpayer I am extremely opposed to Officer Calvert taking a "paid vacation" due to the pending allegations against him and the Chief of Police's position in allowing him to do so. Chief Lee's lack of leadership is baffling, this compounded by his arrogance on the subject matter as emanated by his statements "no investigation, KWPD is not part of the court process, we're not involved in this". Then what in the hell do we need him for? Obviously, thru his own admission, he is NOT there to govern.

That "paid vacation" you speak of is vacation time he earned while working. There is nothing wrong with him using that time.

It is pretty clear the people of Key West are a bit naive. In speaking with a few family and friends who are police officers (in other counties and other states) what has happened here is venturing on the side of ridiculous. In cases like this while they are still investigating a police officer (accused of beating his children), they generally don't have him take a "vacation" and put him at a desk job. While investigations are pending, they will have them take a leave of absence. This is done with or without pay depending on the severity of the case. Whether he is innocent or guilty remains to be seen. But if you don't smell a rat then Key West has bigger problems. Chief Lee is obviously being forced to allow him to work. He must be hiding something if he is too scared to protect his police force from one officer. Not to mention taking a big risk. I think the big picture has yet to reveal itself and just like the can of worms with the school district, there is a lot that remains to be seen!!!!

The moon landing was staged in Hollywood. or else, Elvis is secretly running the police department. Watch out! Watch out! So much conspiracy abounds! Give it a rest loser, you have no idea what the "normal procedure" is because you have no idea of the actual allegations.

that would make you one of those idiots with their head in the sand. There's plenty of proof out there as to the thuggery of the MCSO and KWPD. And then there are those of us who have never been arrested, who have witnessed these law enforcement officers in many illegal activities, or who have been subjected to their stalking and threats simply because we know too much about them and the fact that we know about their drug dealings and other activities, makes them very, very nervous.

Just keep that fat head buried in the sand, ok? Then one day, you'll find it's lobbed off by one of the thugs that you 'think' are protecting and serving you.

P. Child vs. T. Calvert (/node/20810#comment-39285)

Submitted on Sun, 02/14/2010 - 11:42am

I have questions: Patti Child was in her probationary period when she was fired. Had she not been in the new-hired status, wouldn't she just have been given a slap on the wrist? Now, since Thad Calvert is no longer in his probationary period he is not being fired, is this really a fair and equal method/system? As an officer, dancing in the street and posting some photos on Myspace seems inappropriate, but no more deserving of termination than an officer allowing his personal life to become public trial by newspaper. Whether or not T. Calvert physically harmed his family, he clearly cannot TCB and handle his business in an adult and mature fashion. If Calvert is allowed to stay on the force, then reinstate P. Child.

My ex had his gun removed - permanently since my restraining order is permanent. He was a danger to the public and to me. He no longer works in law enforcement, though as a drug addict, he's still in a job where he endangers the public. If this guy Calvert can't control himself around his kids, what makes you think he can control himself in a truly tense situation?

And...are you aware the MCSO and KWPd supposedly drug tests (/node/20810#comment-39242)

these officers of theirs? Well, they may drug test them, but they still allow them to work. Either (1) they don't really drug test or (2) they ignore the results which show their officers are a: drug addicts on pain meds illegally or b: alcoholics or c: both The scary thing? These people are walking around amongst us, with weapons. They are flying helicopters, driving cop cars, dropping out of the skies as 'swat' officers, and even patrolling our airport. People, you need to KNOW what these people in polyester uniforms really are. They're scary. They're dangerous. And they're SANCTIONED by the likes of Peryham and Donnie Lee.

adhere to any sort of rules. They allow officers on drugs to still be in positions that endanger the public. They don't rein in their dangerous officers (such as Biskup, from another story). They allow thugs to be thugs with no recourse. This one? If he can't control himself around children, he shouldn't have a weapon and be in contact with the public. Therefore, he really is of no use to anyone. He should be fired and go find a job where he can't hurt others. Clearly he is not suited for the job.

The force needs more officers like Biskup (/node/20810#comment-39407)

Sorry folks, I know I am going to take flack for this, but we need more officers like Eric Biskup. Officers not afraid to do their job and not scared to act when asked to. Officer Biskup helped our family about 2 months ago. We had our step daughter run away, and Officer Biskup was just one of the officers who helped us. He came to our house and proceeded to help and call us through the night, even going the distance of calling Miami Dade to help. We ended in Miami only to be met with an entire different attitude than Key West cops. The attitude in Miami was " what do you want us to do?" These cops might have their days, but the entire KWPd do their job well and for the most part have a professional attitude. I think as civilians, we forget what difficult and dangerous situations these officers are put through each day. These officers who get accused should be tried in court and is a law enforcement officer. He can't control himself around children, so what makes you think he can control himself in a situation with innocent citizens?????? Fire his smarmy as*!!! We don't need this type of 'public servant'. Cops are guys who have some sort of physical shortcoming who have anger issues. They are out to get even for their own personal issues. Most are short and come up 'short' physically in many, many ways. Giving them a weapon to make up for their shortcomings puts us all at risk. FIRE HIM.

Sure...he can be benevolent when he's dealing with a runaway. But how about in a tense situation? Clearly he can't handle it in an adult manner.

Have you seen this guy, even his hair has muscles, and he enjoys beating up on his teenage son and daughter, what a loser, are there charges pending? I am surprised the MCSO hasn't place him under arrest for battering a minor, if it is your own kids its ok?

Typical Monroe County and Key West law enforcement dirtbag.

Nothing new here. Roth, Peryham, and the current and past police chiefs just seem to think it's all a 'personal matter'. Why? Because these administrators all think it's OK to beat up on spouses and kids. DIRTBAGS one and all!!!! One day they'll ALL pay their due.

He struck his kids? Its cops like this why people don't like the police..He thinks because he has a badge that he can hit people? Anybody that hits kids(especially their own) is a dirtbag..These people become cops because they were beat up in school and now need a front to cover up their cowardness..His wife needs to leave him and take his kids away..I would say hit someone your own size but then when I strike him back he takes you to jail..Cowardness

I would like to see a point of clarity about the Citizen article, I know Officer Calvart is married to KWPD Detective Del Cid, was she present when the assaults occurred, what were her obligations if so? The article stated,"Calvart and his wife are having, "ongoing domestic difficult," according to police spokeswoman Alyson Crean", do they mean his ex-wife or is Calvert having difficulties with both?

It's called the DelCid toxin. (/node/20810#comment-39160)

Wow...this town seems to have a whole bunch of people who hate anyone who are in public service (military & cops). Why the hatred? I realize there are bad apples in every organization but it seems that this "pile on" mentality is pretty heavy here. Maybe all of you stone throwers made bad decisions in your lives like drug use, DUI's, no education, criminal activity and have decided its easier to throw stones at others...Is this a bit of jealousy about folks who have worked hard, gotten an education and believe in something besides getting stoned and drunk? Grow up.

There is a very good reason why people feel this way about the cops in this county. It does not have anything to do with jealousy or "folks who have worked hard" and "gotten" an education, which you obviously didn't. ... are you a cop or work for the MCSD? Anyway, my point is that the cops in THIS county only work for the bubbas and these regular citizens are SICK of it, and they are voicing their opinions, looks like you are the minority here. If you don't live here, you shouldn't comment about this, if you are a cop here, I get that YOU are possibly the delusional one thinking that you actually have "gotten" yourself an education and became a cop for the right reasons. Maybe so you could get away with using drugs and being drunk when you go to your Sunday boat races, yeah, I know who you guys are. Drinking and driving is okay if you are a Key West Cop, there are so many hypocrites in this county, they will arrest you for smoking a joint (which is harmless to everyone but the one smoking it and then it is less harmful than drinking and smoking cigarettes), but it's okay for THEM to drive around drinking while their off duty. (Let's hope they don't do it while they are on duty.) So, YOU need to grow up and realize all cops are not created equal and this place definately gives them a bad name. BTW, I grew up in the Midwest and had nothing but love and respect for the police officers in my hometown, of course, up there, they actually cared about the WHOLE community and no one was getting kick backs for this and that. None of them became cops to get rich and drive BMW's, I don't think most of them think that is even possible on a cop's salary. I think that with the state this country is in right now, everyone needs to learn how to defend themselves and rely less on others such as the police. They may not make it in time, even though there are so many of them you can't imagine what they are all doing. I know that the cops here are lazy and don't want to do their jobs, I have personally witnessed this on more than one occasion, but there are those rare few that really do care, you just have to hope they will be the ones responding when you need them. I say thank you to them, (you know who you are), for doing what we taxpayers pay them for and doing it well.

None of this is true. (/node/20810#comment-39612)

I was an MCSO deputy for several years. I came from out of town. I was not a "Bubba." The department was very professional and far less tolerant of unruly behavior than what KWPD was...and still is. I am not a drug user and I don't abuse alcohol...nor did any of my colleagues. We were short handed and had a very heavy case load. So, I have no idea where you are getting all this B.S. I was very proud to display my uniform. It's unfortunate there are people like you to embellish all this garbage to support your personal hatred of authority. As for this issue with Calvert, I feel this is a personal matter to be determined by the court like with any other citizen. Every single career filed has people that find themselves in some sort of trouble. Cops just get more media attention because of their positions. Try to keep this in perspective.

Oh! The 'grow up' comment again. Must be a Bubba. (/node/20810#comment-39340)

Thats one of the most common phrases used by those who support criminals like Acevedo and the little punks who are mugging innocent people. I see no comments that have a thing to do with the military. How did you make that big leap in judgement? Nothing posted here has anything to do with the military. Are you one of our 'back the blue' thugs who is looking for some sort of assistance from the military? Your game is rather sad and predictable. I clearly see no support in the ranks of our military for those who like to play 'military pretend', such as our KWPD and MCSO officers do, walking around in their silly camo outfits. Do they realize that we all think they're rather pathetic in their little costumes?

I have made a comment and I have never been arrested, have a BA degree, and do not drive while drunk and do not do drugs. It's my unfortunate experience to personally know some of these law enforcement people and thus I know that they have been involved in many illegal activities such as buying and receiving stolen goods, all with the support of the KWPD and MCSO. There is absolutely no jealousy here since I'd never even want to be seen socially with this ilk. I'd not lower myself to hanging with these pseudo-criminals who masquerade as 'law enforcement'. Most are physically lacking (and you know what I mean) and their guns are their 'extenders'.
